“ I loved my Ainee. Was just in Wellston with mom 3 weeks ago to visit her. Ainee has been in my life since 1958. She was our precious neighbor and friend for many years. My dad called her "Reno" and she called him "Jamsey". I will always remember her giggle and her handkerchiefs. We all love you Ainee.....

“ My Dearest Ainee, I'm so sorry I can't be with you today as I am very sick and can't even stand up. But I'll be thinking of you and Drew with love. You both were always so good to Don and I and we deeply appreciate it and your friendship. I am so happy you are no longer suffering, and are with our Savior, (and your beloved Drew). Say hello to my sweetheart when you see him, I know he'll be tickled pink to see his good friend 'Reno'. I've always loved you Ainee, and am so thankful that God put you in our life! ~~~ Love, JoAnn James
