“ I remember the first time I met brother Jimmy. He was at church with brother Carl and Sister Kim. I asked him if I could give him a hug. He just smiled and said ok. Every time after that, whenever or wherever I saw brother Jimmy, I would get a hug and a smile. He was so full of a quiet love, that was just looking to spill over onto whoever he would meet.

I know it took a little while, but how happy and proud I was when I heard that Brother Jimmy had given his heart to Jesus.

Brother Jimmy became a great part of our church family. He became an even greater part of Brother Carl and Sister Kim’s family, proving himself over the years to be a great helper and a faithful friend.

My heart is sad because I will miss brother Jimmy and his smiling hugs, but I rejoice in knowing that he is home in Heaven with Jesus, but I will see him again “over yonder”.

Some people spend their entire lives trying to find a purpose. Brother Jimmy fulfilled his purpose here by loving his way into our hearts.

God bless you my friend and rest in the Lord Jesus until we meet again.....
