

Addie I. Tinsley

December 7, 1932 - November 27, 2022

Addie I. Tinsley, 89 passed away peacefully Sunday, November 27, 2022 at Holzer Medical Center of Gallipolis. She was born December 7, 1932 in Charleston, West Virginia to the late Burl and Bessie Campbell Rollins. She worked at Grant Medical Center as a cook for over 20 years and enjoyed watching birds, flowers and just setting outside on a nice summer day. Addie loved the Lord and lived a very humble life. She was also known as the coolest old person ever.

She is survived by her daughters: Penny Stapleton and Candie Tinsley, brother: Revaughn Rollins, grandchildren: David Tinsley, Chris Tinsley, Amy Roberts and Sabrina Tinsley. She was also survived by several great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home

“ This is such a terrible loss. Heaven definitely has gained the most beautiful angel. I feel very honored to had met her, and the few times I was her in presence, I had gained a massive amount of respect for her. Such a wonderful person. My deepest condolences to the family, and you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love,
Lanie
