“ I met Alma two years ago as we were both attending a grief-sharing group at Christ United Methodist Church in Jackson. She was struggling with Rich's passing, and I was seeking peace at the loss of my sister, Norma White. After the first meeting, I felt a special kinship to this lovely lady. She exuded a strength and dignity I admired, and we immediately became good friends. When we realized we'd both spent part of our lives in Pickletown, she became an amazing comfort. . We talked on the phone, at least weekly, and began attending religious services together. My time with Alma was profound , funny, and always faith-strengthening, as she was rock solid in her walk with the Lord. Everyone should have a friend as enriching as Alma; my only regret is that I didn't meet her 40 years ago. What a friend we have in Jesus, Alma. I have God's assurance that she has reunited with her precious husband, Rich, and that is keeping her smiling. Rest softly, dear friend.

I only knew Alma and her husband for a short time while I attended Hillside Chapel . In that short time I came to love and have a deep appreciation for her and her faith . She was such a kind lady . Sending prayers to her family !

“ Alma is a cousin I've known all my life. There are numerous memories--too many to list. She was always so full of life and energy. My friends and I called her the EverReady battery because she kept going and going. It's hard to think of her stilled in this life. I'm sure her spirit is soaring since the transition to her new life. May God bless those who saw her frequently these past years/days and will acutely feel the void from her absence--especially Shawn and Beth who were like family to her and Rich.

“ Our deepest sympathies to Alma’s brothers, sisters and their families, and to Shawn and Beth. Alma will be greatly missed. She was a dear friend and I considered her as my “hospitality mentor”. When we were preparing to entertaining guests, I would think “Now how would Alma handle this?” When new kitchen appliances came out, she would urge me to get them - “you will LOVE it.” And she was always right! I told her that I might as well go and buy the appliance as soon as she gives it her endorsement. Microwave, bread machine, crockpot.....and the list goes on! I will miss visiting them/her and their visits to Holmes County and our long phone conversations. Alma is now in the presence of Jesus, where she hears the words “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.” Till we meet again, our friend! Sonny and Sharon Miller

“ Alma was a great lady !! She was a very faithful customer in my beauty shop and never failed to bring me goodies , my favorite was her apple and cheese bars , they were delicious. She told me she was ready to go to Heaven the last time I saw her. Oh the beauty she’s seeing right now. I’m glad I got to know her. Pam Lindamood
