“ Andrew loved and adored me. No one could doubt that. He was my protector, my rock, my help, and my home. Even when we split for a while I knew I could always count on him. He loved big and hard. Thank you for nine and a half year of raising my girls as your own and being the best dad to our son. I love you always.

I actually ran into Andy not long ago and it was just like the last time I talked with him. He was always such a sweetheart. I am very saddened to hear of his passing. I will keep his boys and his family in my thoughts and prayers. Until we meet again my friend.
