“ I am so sorry for the loss of your aunt. When I was young I loved the library and was there every Saturday. Ann knew of my love for books and was always helpful directing me to new authors that I might enjoy reading. I haven't lived in Jackson for over fifty years but whenever I am in Jackson and pass the Memorial Building I think of her working there in the library.

“ Sincere condolences to Ann's family. She was always so dear to my mother, delivering specially selected books when my mother could no longer go to the library. I will never forget Ann's sweet smile. May your memories of her comfort you.
