“ My memories of grandma, are as followed in the summer and weekend her place was the place me and all my cousins would go and stay. She was so kind and generous to put up with all of us, because I know we could be a handful at times. When I moved from Ohio and would make trips back for visits her place was one of my first stops. I just had to stop by and see her and to get my hug from her. Gramma you will be missed and you have touched many with your kindness and loving hands.

“ So sorry for the loss of Marie in all our lives but we are very fortune and blessed people to have had her be apart of our lives. Marie is a true friend. She always gave me encouragement and we shared many laughs and tears together.

It is as honor to say that Marie nichols was my friend. Her hope in life was for her family to do well. be healthy and love God. She truly loved God and shared Him with all of us, not only in words but how she stayed strong and hopeful.

Marie. I'll see you in heaven. Enjoy your rest from the pain and heartache of this world and soon, very soon we will laugh again.

Love to all your fammily

“ I thought of you today Grandma but that is nothing new,I thought of you yesterday and the days before that too. I think of you in silence, and often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part.God has you in his arms but I have you in my heart. Tomorrow makes 5 months since we lost you grandma and I still feel like a heart broken little girl I miss you so much the pain is too much to bare with some says, but then I think of how strong you were and that gives me the ability to soldier on. I just wish I could have one more day I'd even settle for an hour just to let you know how much you meant to me. I love and miss you Grammy.

“ I read your entries today and it makes me so sad that we lost such a special person to so many. When you think of Marie, smile and laugh for all the joy she brought us, If marie could speak she would tells us to live the lives God desires us to have. We will all meet again some day and God will wipe away those tears, Thats a promise and Go keeps His promises, May you find peace and comfort. Bridget,

“ I've been thinking about you a lot lately and all the great times we've had when I was growing up, your house was the place to be on the weekends and in the summer, I remember getting up early and going to church with you PJ and Jennifer. I have so many great memories I cannot wait to share with my girls and one day I plan to take them to your church and maybe they'll enjoy it like I did. I remember going to potluck and just spending time with you whenever I could. God only takes the best and you were the BEST grandma I could have asked for. Love, Tiffany

I still cry today.although I loved you dearly I could not make you stay.a golden heart stopped beating,hard working hands at rest.God broke my heart to prove he only takes the best. Its been almost 6 months since you died and I miss you every day if only I could talk to you again I'd have so much to say. Uncle James found your emborderary stuff and is sending it to me so I can start emborderaring just like you, I remember when I was a little girl I would sit and watch you do it, I always wanted to be like you. I wish you could be here for me to show you how much I have grown since I started working I actually moved away and I run 2 different apartment complexes my main one in Middleport Ohio where I now live, the only down side is I'm farther away fro my mom, but I moved to provide a better life for my girls I know you'd be proud I hope my mom is too maybe you could whisper in her ear and let her know you're ok so she'll be ok that I moved to Middleport and be proud of me too. “ I never knew I could hurt like this,and everyday goes on like I wish I could talk to you for awhile. Miss you but try not to cry as time goes by and it's true you've reached a better place still i'd give the world to see your face and I'm right here sitting next to you now it's like your gone too soon now the hardest thing to do is say bye bye. I miss you grandma some days my heart literally hurts from missing you. Gaby came to me the other night looking sad I asked her what was wrong and she told me she missed you then she walked over grabbed your picture and hugged it.

“ It's been 8 months since we lost you and the pain is still so fresh like it just happened. I think of you everyday and even came across hand soap that smells just like you and I stumbled across a jar of lotion and a canister of Avon powder you always had when I was little. I still want to believe this is all a horrible 8 month dream I'll wake up from and have you back. I'd give anything to have just one more day with you to make sure you know how much you meant to me and how proud I was to call you grandma. Words cannot express the pain inside my heart knowing I'll never see you again you were the strongest person I knew, you had 10 kids and numerous grandkids and several great-grandkids and I know you loved each and everyone one of us. I have never in my life experienced such a pain in my heart as I have felt in the almost 8 months since you've been gone. I know this is meant to leave memories but this is my grief outlet and I hope some how these all reach you and you know what an impact you had me in the 28 years I was lucky enough to have you in my life, in those 28 years I was blessed with 2 beautiful daughters one of whom I had the honor to name after a wonderful woman and they both have traits of you in them, they are both stubborn like you and Gabrielle has your hair I loved playing with your hair and now my beautiful daughter has it. I miss you so much grandma if this is some how making it to you please visit me in my dreams tonight. I love and miss you forever and always
