“ When Arpie's brother, Earl (my grandpa) moved back to Ohio, we were able stay with Liberty and Arpie when visiting. She was always so nice. She would get up so early and make my family the largest breakfast I've ever seen on person prepare. And always send us home with some gingerbread. I will miss Aunt Arpie, so much.

“ One of the most loving woman that I have known. She would send gingerbread home with me for my mom and sister, Rosalie. If God has gingerbread, I am sure the three of them are sitting around talking and eating gingerbread. She will forever be missed and loved.

“ Arpie was known to me as the gingerbread lady. Whenever I saw her at a church dinner there she was with her gingerbread, her kind and loving manner toward others, church, and God.

“ I'll always remember each and every Easter and Thanksgiving spent with you, surrounded by all of our family. I remember always feeling so much love and warmth when you'd give me a hug and kiss my cheek. And each time I smell gingerbread, you pop into my mind because no one can make like you did. I wish, more than anything, that I could have spent more time with you. But, you're home now and at peace, and that gives me some small comfort. I do love you great grandma. Tell everyone hello and give them all a big hug for us.

“ God saw u getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around u & whispered come with me. With tearful eyes, we watched and saw u pass away. Although we love u dearly, we could not make u stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest.. God broke our hearts to prove to us, he, only takes the best.

“ I love you great grandma. Thank you for all the years of fun at your house for Easter and Thanksgiving and all the gingerbread! Nobody makes it like you do and I sure miss it. I miss your hugs, your voice and the sweet way you always touched my face and gave me a small kiss on the cheek. Rest In Peace Grandma, and tell everyone hi for us all down here, we sure miss them too.
