

Beverly Jean Hockett

November 21, 1941 - September 3, 2024

Beverly Jean Hockett, age 82 of Oak Hill, Ohio passed away at her home on Tuesday, September 3, 2024. She was born on November 21, 1941 in Cincinnati, Ohio to the late Roby and Lonie Johnson.

She had an unwavering devotion to her faith in God, living her life by sharing His word with everyone she encountered. From a young age she was a talented artist and her life's work varied from oil paintings of the Canadian scenery inspired by family trips with her husband and children to designing the home her husband built when they settled in Jackson, OH. She had a deep passion for gardening, which was evident in her beautifully maintained yard. Every corner of her garden showcased her dedication, with vibrant flowers, lush greenery, and carefully pruned plants. Her meticulous care and attention to detail transformed her yard into a serene and picturesque oasis, reflecting her love for nature and her skillful gardening techniques. She cherished working and socializing within the various communities in which they lived. She was afforded this opportunity thanks to the various general stores she and her husband owned and operated over the years.

Beverly is survived by her husband, Donald Hockett, her daughters: Donda Hockett and Geraldina George, her 7 grandchildren, and 8 great grandchildren.

Besides her parents, she is preceded in death by her two sons: Arnold and

Roby Hockett, her brother: William, and her three sisters: Faye, Velma, and Christine.
