“ Joshua, Tori & Destiny
So sorry for this horrible tragedy !The pain and grief can seem overwhelming when we loose a parent .But don't forget the wonderful promise at John 5:28,29 There will be a resurrection. Jehovah God Hates to see death just as much as us and desires to bring our loved ones back. And to your mom , in a blink of an eye she will be resurrected back to life on earth in conditions that are way better than she left behind . Turn to Jehovah for comfort during this hard time .

“ Joshua, Tory and Destiny, My heart goes out to you,I know how much you loved your mom,as did everyone one else that new her. One of the things I will remember most about her was her beautiful smile,it could light up a room.I hope you all will remember the good things you learned at the Kingdom Hall and think about them during this difficult time,I am confident that Jehovah will bring your mom back during the resurrection,and I know that she will want you all to be there to welcome her back.You have a lot of people that love you,and want to help you if you will allow them to,just reach out and let them know what they can do for you.My thoughts,love and prayers are with you. “ Keith, We are so sorry I have been crying everyday since I found out I can't imagine the pain that you and the kids are going through. but I want you to know we love you so much Be strong That's what Dee would have wanted you to do. Jehovah will end all the pain and suffering and you will get to see her real soon in a Paradise. I know you Love Jehovah and so did Dee. I was talking with her back in July and she was trying to make arrangements to get to our international assembly she would have had a blast there it was amazing to see all our brothers around the world be there but she will get to see it on a much grander scale in that new order. We just have to stay strong until the end. I and Anthony Love you guys so much You and the family are in our thoughts and prayers everyday Love you Keith with all my Heart Surina
