“ I have known Brent and his family for many years. He used to be my neighbor and always took care of everyone. When he moved he gave me his cat to raise and I would always joke and give him updates. I will always remember that he was always smiling and laughing. Brent would help anyone who asked and he loved his family more than anything. I always enjoyed watching Brent with his boys at the county fair with his turkeys. He always was so proud of his children. My heart goes out to his family and friends and I send my continuous prayers for comfort. Brent rest easy, spread those angel wings, and know that you will be greatly missed...Laura Hollback and Chase Keirms!
