“ BJ,

*I remember the day you were born, you were just an armload of love. I watched my son grow into a man before I knew it. You have always made me proud, you were a good father, loving each child that came into your life. You loved fishing from the time you held your first fishing pole and out fished us all. My heart is broken and a piece of it goes along with you. My life will never be the same, but I will cherish the memory of my youngest son, bigger then life with that “I caught the big one” smile. I will always love and miss you.
Dad*
