“ *I remember many times Carl outside helping his grandfather Ted Coy on cars or whatever dad was working on. He was always there wanting to help know matter what it was. The thing is he couldn't have been over 5 or6 years old. Later years I'd see him in his semi at cool spot or some other fuel stop and we would both be back on the road. My nephew will be missed very much. Fly high little Carl.

*Carl is my nephew I wish I had spent more time with him. I remember when he was 3 or 4 years old. His mom told him to pick out candy at the store. He bought dark brown sugar. I had a picture of him holding that sugar and smiling from ear to ear proudly. I lost track of him and my niece Debbie after his dad got married. He had such a big beautiful smile. And his eyes were like his mom's very beautiful. I may have lost contact with him but I always have and always will love you!! ,
