“ Mom was a beautiful, kind and loving Mother to me and my Brother and Sister. Mom and Daddy enjoyed a 67 year marriage filled with everlasting love and devotion and the most wonderful parents who gave us a memorable childhood. She will be miss by our family and many friends. Mom I love you very much and I know I will see you again one day.

“ To The Family of Marie Rice: I loved spending time at your house when I was growing up. Your Mother was always so good to me. Kathy, Kay and Bobby we had so many good times together. Your Mother and my Mother loved spending time together and talking on the telephone (sometimes for hours). Your Mother always looked so pretty-every hair in place. I look forward to when we can welcome them both back in the new world. We will all have so much to catch up on. I know she is missed right now but remember Jesus' words at John 5:28,29 and Mal 3:16. We have such a wonderful hope! With faith and belief, Mary Phillips Haggerty.

“ It's been a year ago since Mom died and she is still missed but I have wonderful memories of growing up and into adulthood. Daddy is still with us and is doing fine and I know he still misses her but seems to be adjusting pretty well. Love you Mom!
