“ In 1984 you were the light of my world. Yellow roses were our special rose. We had our wedding cake made with them. Did you know I still plant yellow roses, near every home I have lived in since our parting? I still can not listen to a Bryan Adams song without crying for what could have been. Monica used to call you Chaddy Daddy when she was 3 yrs old. Our first child joined us on Nov. 21, 1985, Laura. Our 2nd child Amanda joined us on Nov. 6th, 1986. Our son, Corey was born Dec. 7th 1988. I will always remember our time together and what we were able to share. I thank God that you are free from this prison on earth! Fly high Chad! You will forever have a piece of my heart, I see your face in our children's faces, I see your walk in your son's walk. God will give you wings now!

“ When we were little we called Chad Chaddy Waddy Giggle Box because he got tickled so easily. We were always happy when Chad and Todd were coming over; they were so much fun! I'm so glad Chad got saved before he passed. Now he will live forever without disease, or affliction! I'm sure he's one happy guy and cracking jokes in Heaven! Much love,

Chad... We had some fun times working at main express.. About 35 years ago... You were a sweet guy..no matter how many years had passed. Each time we ran into each other. It seemed like it had only been a week or two... You were easy to talk too.. rest well. Chad.. Tell the family. Hey from all of us.. Till we get together again in Heaven...💙
