“ We have many good memories of Charlies as we served as his Pastor for thirteen at the Jackson First of the Nazarene. Charles was a kind and very polite man. We always enjoyed visiting Charles and his mother Sarah in their home. Our prayers are with Elaine and her family.

Many years ago I worked for J-Vac and had the pleasure of getting to know Charles. He always worked on the Hopewell effigy pipes in the Ceramics department and was such a perfectionist with his work. We will keep the family in our prayers! Susan Rogers
