“ Charlie today is going to be the one the worst days of my life. The worst was the day your life ended. I can't imagine having to bury the love of my life, my hero, my world. I know everyone else hurts but I wish I was going with you. It's so hard to breath without you. Why couldn't you be saved? With a heart like yours I would have thought it would be easy. I Pray I don't stay here long without you. I'm so broken and lost.without you.

“ I have lost my world and it doesn't quit spinning. Charlie was the most loving, caring, sharing, would do anything for anyone person to ever live. He was nice to everyone and would bend over backwards to help you. He wanted to do everything for me and I loved and appreciated absolutely everything he did. We loved each other so much and everything was mutual between us. There will always be a huge hole where my heart used to be. He loved his children and grand children and family. It's been really nice to hear from his friends and co workers and know how they felt about him. Thanks to everyone who has helped and all the well wishes and prayers. Charlie was so special and caring and he was my world and I don't know what to do without him. Anyone who knew him is welcome to come and celebrate his life at Mayhew Brown funeral home Sunday the 13th from 1-3. Services will follow and their will be a dinner in his honor after but I will post shortly. I LOVE YOU CHARLIE AND ALWAYS WILL.
