“ I only have fond memories of Bob, Lucille and Debbie Hamilton. They were very good friends of my parents, Louis & Rilla Hunt. My Mom and Lucille remained close friends throughout their lives. I recall they managed the trailer park for us when our family moved to Florida for a year back in the “60’s. Lucille was a beautiful person inside and out. Deepest condolences to her family and friends.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Lucille’s passing. She was a beautiful person. Lucille was one of my mother, Rilla Hunt, best friends for many many years while they lived in Jackson, Ohio. She had a great love for her dogs and cat, they brought her hours of comfort. Lucille’s laugh was so sweet and genuine, I sincerely hope all the memories will bring the family comfort.
