“ I will always remember sweet Darlene, I worked there for 19 months and she was my favorite resident on autumn hall and she knew it, they just don't come any sweeter than her. I was the only nurse that could change her bandage and she not cry from the pain or need pain med for it, she told me I had the gentlest touch of them all, she always had a way of making everyone feel special. Never any trouble to anyone, god only takes the best and with her he gained a wonderful angel, until we meet again, in my heart forever, love u Darlene.

“ I took care of Darlene, we discussed me buying a new coat, she told me, "Chris buy a red coat you'll look sassy." Well I bought the red coat and wore it to work for her to see, she said, "I told you, you would look sassy." I will miss her smile, she always had one ready for you when you would walked into her room, and if you said something smart to her, she always had a quick come back. We would try and help her and she would say, just set it down I can do it. Love you Darlene.
