“ I remember Donna as a caring mother, loving wife, compassionate nurse, and a woman with a zest for life. One thing that will be missed is her laugh uniquely Donna. Even though I grew up and left Jackson, the times I did see her it was like time stood still. She had a smile hand hug like she had seen me yesterday. God blessed so many people by placing her in Donny's path those many years ago. My thoughts and prayers are with you daily during this time of sadness.
