“ I remember Mrs. Wyant out on the playground at Scioto School, To my young eyes she was the most beautiful person and always smelled so good. I remember asking her one time what perfume she wore and of course now that I'm old, I have forgotten. Blessings on her and her family. Stacey Boroff

“ My mother was in Four Winds with Donna . I always enjoyed visiting with her along with my mother. I even got a song out of her once in awhile. She was a very lovely lady. May she rest in peace now. God Bless her husband and the Son that I met.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. When I think of my childhood on the farm, so many dear friends come to mind including Donna. She did have a lovely smile and she could always make me laugh. Prayers for Orville and family 🙏

Donna was a wonderful person, she pulled many of my baby teeth, pushed me on the swings, and bandaged up my playground wounds. Sending prayers of comfort for the family and many friends.
