“ So sorry for your lost my deepest condolences. Praying for you all.My most memorable memory, Dottie was at our house on Lewis Rd in Gallipolis. She was watching the kids,when I left for work their boxer, ran down the hill and under my wheels, it killed him. I was distraught, I went back to the house to tell Dottie, she said " it's okay, now if it had been once of the kids, it would be a different matter" than she smiled.
