“ I met Angie in the 3rd grade and we were always together every time I was in Ohio. So I spent a lot of time at my second home with Butch and Dorothy as my second parents. One time when I was a young and dumb teenager I decided to skip school and sleep in Angie's closet. Butch came in digging around in the closet and grabbed my leg, scaring me to death and surprising the heck out of him! He told everyone the story, but it was hilarious when he told it because he was always so funny. From then on he dubbed me The Closet Bandit... I will never live that nickname down. I am really gonna miss you Butch. I love you always and forever.

“ I have alot of memories about my uncle Butch . He really new how to make you laugh. Well one time he asked me if I could drive him to Logan because he had an appointment with a dr there. And I had just got my licence just not to long before anyway I'm driving along and all of a sudden I yell where the road go. Lol we were going up this big hill and he immediately started laughing at me it was funny and he always could make me laugh. Rip Uncle Butch love always your niece Vicki
