“ To Ed's Family,

Our family sends kindest sympathies to you. In the 1940's Ed frequently visited in our home with his Grandmother and Mother. As his cousin, I enjoyed playing games with Ed, my brothers and sister, in our front yard. Later in life, we enjoyed visiting with Ed and his family at the May family reunions. Our prayers are with you today.

“ Regarding my entry to the guest book a few minutes ago, I see that I mistakenly said Ed's grandmother and mother, instead of Ed's sister and mother. It was actually Ed's mother, Aunt Lib, and his sister, Clara, that visited our home.

Thank you, Shirley Sharp

So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I know he's not been well for awhile and may you and your family find comfort in knowing he is no longer struggling. May your memories sustain you in the coming days until the day you meet again.

Thinking of you and praying for comfort.
