“ *Ed led a wonderful fun filled life. He always had a comment to make or a smile to give to someone. He was a kind and generous man , willing to help those who needed him.
He will be missed but I am sure now happy that he has reunited with Edna and Sue.*

“ Ed and Edna were our neighbors on Mill St. They were both wonderful people. There were ducks that would visit a nearby pond that would come to both our houses and we would feed them, we just loved those ducks. I have missed both Ed and Edna. My heartfelt sympathy to Ed's family.

Sincerely

Gay & Mike Gilliland, and granddaughter, Baylee Wolford

“ It is with deeply felt sorrow that I read today's obituaries. Reading the name of a dear friend always breaks my heart. A dear friend Ed was. We meet sharing many breakfast's at McDonalds for more than 10 yrs. He took my son's fishing, helped my oldest son write his 8th grade report on WWII and came to a few of my youngest son's football games. We talked dogs & cats amongst other topics. Learning that Edna had passed a while back left me with the knowledge that Ed would soon follow as they shared a very special love & bond while alive. It was only to be expected that they would share this in passing as well. At least Ed, Edna & Sue are together once again, It does sadden me that I will not be able to play violin for Ed's funeral as he had previously asked me to do. Just learning at this time won't allow me the chance to do so, but please be assured that this evening, I will play Ed a song...special from my heart. I'm sure if able the 2 will hear it and dance happily from cloud to cloud. RIP dear friend.
