Imogene was such a fun person. We were neighbors on Oak Street. She was there for us when our Dad passed away and took care of our son Stephen. Such a wonderful person. She will be missed. Prayers for Teresa and family.

I worked with lmy for many years at the hospital I was also blessed to have her as a friend for all those years. She was one of the most gentle, kind and caring lady you would ever want to meet. She would go out of her way to help everyone. She was one of the best nurses Holzer employed and her shoes could never be filled. I went to visit her at her home and her caretaker said she would mention your name as we sat and reminisced about the fun times we had I'll miss you my friend, the world has lost a great person but it was heavens gain. RIP she will be missed beyond words.
