I'm so sorry for the loss of your mommy. She was such a special person to my mother and me. I remember her helping Pam and me with our 4-H projects at the last minute,lol. She and my mother loved to go to Columbus, OH to JC Penney's Outlet and ship for hours. She was always very kind to me and I'm sorry I'm not able to be there. I literally just found this out about 10 minutes ago when Bronwyn texted me to tell me. She read it online. She even remembers how much Elvarie meant to us. Love you and I'll get in touch with you soon Pam. Love, Brenda Smith-Leeth

“ To the family, sorry we can't physically be there to offer our condolences. But I want you all to know you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Elvarie was a very special, loving and thoughtful Lady. She was a big part of my family for the past 50 some years.

I remember all the the family get together every year at Mother's Day and Father's Day. This year won't be the same without this beautiful Lady (and her famous noodles - she was a great cook) We will miss you Nan, but I know you are in a much better place now. We love you and will see you again.

“ I remember all the times my family would go to my Uncle Williard's and Aunt Elvarie's house we would spend time talking and eating. We would always end up talking about the Lord. How good he is to us and how good it was to have him in our lives. I loved when we would go there for Williard's birthday it was so enjoyable. There is coming a day we will meet and never part. I am looking for that day. We are all praying for the family. We send our love and deepest sympathy. Love Michelle and Tim Eckard and also my mom Phyllis Castle.

“ One of my fondest memories of Nan & Pap was from many years ago.. I was sitting in Subway waiting for a friend to have lunch.. Nan and Pap walk in and they were holding hands as they walked in to go shopping. It literally made me cry happy tears. I am so sad that Nan & Pap are not on earth anymore yet I rejoice that today they are walking all over heaven holding hands. You will be missed, Nan. All the love and prayers in my heart go out to your large amazing family. Love you all, Jennifer Padgett
