He spent many years learning the trade alongside his Dad in his Dad's garage. He was a true family man. His wife, Tracy, was the love of his life. They built an amazing family together. He loved being "Pap" to his grand-kids and great-grand-kids. Their time together made many beautiful memories.

“ Eric was a wonderful guy. He always asked how everyone was doing. My beloved husband (Ernie) loved talking with him. I can only imagine seeing Ernie waiting at Heavens gate welcoming Eric right in. Until we meet again RIP !! Debbie Sickles
