

Freda M. Brown

March 14, 1922 - November 17, 2013

Freda Mae (Watson) Brown, age 91, went home to be with her Lord Sunday, November 17, 2013, at the Four Winds Nursing Facility, Jackson. She was born March 14, 1922 in Maysville, Kentucky to Robert Watson Sr. and Ella (Wilson) Watson.

The second of eight children, Freda learned to work at an early age, helping her mother care for the younger children. During WWII she was hired by the railroad as a switchboard operator. It was while working for the railroad that she met and later married James E. Brown. They set up housekeeping on the Brown homestead and Freda was introduced to the rigors of farm life. After their children were pretty well grown, Freda went to work outside the home. She got a job with Buckeye Mart (later Fisher's Big Wheel) and worked there until she retired in the 1980's. Freda loved the Lord and raised her children to do the same. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Coalton.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Jim; brothers, Willard, Harold, Chester "Joe" and Raymond Watson and sisters, Wilma Burton and Anna Turner. She is survived by children: David (Denise) of Lonsdale, Arkansas, Mary of Wellston, Paul (Denise) of Jackson and Jim (Laura) of Wellston; one brother, Robert Watson Jr. of Flatwoods, Kentucky; nine grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; "adopted sons" Ed and Dean Armstrong and many friends.

Friends and family may call at the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home Friday, November 22, from 12:00 Noon to 2:00 P.M. Funeral service will immediately follow at 2:00 P.M. with Rev. Andy Rawlins officiating. Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.

“ David, Paul, Jimmy, and Mary,

The loss is great. I'm so sorry.

1 Corinthians 15:53 - 55 says

For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory. "O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?"

Psalm 107:14 through 16 says -

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death And broke their bands apart. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men! For He has shattered gates of bronze And cut bars of iron asunder.

“ Thinking about all of you during this time of loss. The world is a better place for her having lived in it. Your parents were very special to us all. Sorry that I will not be able to be with you on Friday, but will keep you all in my thoughts.
