“ George had many aunts and uncles who he was very close to that wasn't mentioned along with cousins and a few special friends. But I myself wanted to add his Rally's family. I remember George telling me he probably wouldn't have made it as far as he did without them. He loved each and every one of them. He was always talking about them and the goofy moments they shared at work. Thank you all for being there for him and showing him all the love and the support you did. It never went unnoticed by him.
