“ As a little boy he was always with our father. He was 5 when daddy died. After that he blocked all those memories out until a few years ago, before mom passed away. I went home for our family reunion. George then wanted us kids to share our memories of daddy with him. Mother and all her children shut ourselves in Bud's dining room and we all shared memories with both George and Gracy. She was only 11 days old when daddy died. So, they both came to know their father through our memories. It was the best reunion ever. My little brother will surely be missed. But he is home with so many others and no longer suffering. Elsie, my heart breaks for your loss and all of ours. I lost the love of my life of 52 years. I love you. Call me if you ever want to talk. 940-337-2223.

“ My fondest memories of George were when he and my brother Clyde would take us fishing along the banks of Salt Creek and local farm ponds or the times he would babysit us and let us drink black coffee with lots of sugar. I never got to see him much after I graduated from high school, but he always has a place in my heart. Our generation of the family circle keeps getting smaller and smaller. Love and heartfelt condolences to the family from the Reed Family.
