January 4, 1933 - June 9, 2025

Geraldine (Gerry) Rose Moore, 92, of Jackson, passed away on Monday, June 9, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her family. Born in Fleming County, Kentucky, on January 4, 1933, Gerry was the oldest child of the late John Daniel Rose and Eula Kate Purcell Rose.

Gerry graduated as Salutatorian from Fleming County High School in 1951. Shortly after, she began her professional journey in Lexington, Kentucky, while continuing her education through evening classes for many years. On May 31, 1952, Gerry married the love of her life, Roddy T. Moore. Gerry dedicated nearly 40 years to her banking career, working across three locations: El Paso, Texas; Cincinnati, Ohio; and Jackson, Ohio. She retired in 1992 as the Vice President of National City Bank of Jackson, now known as PNC Bank.

Gerry was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church of Jackson, Ohio, since 1965. During her time there, she served in numerous capacities, including on various boards and committees. For 15 years, Gerry held the position of Church Treasurer, but her greatest joy came from teaching Junior High Youth Sunday School, where she inspired young minds with her unwavering faith.

Gerry's legacy is one of profound love for her Lord, her family, and her church. She devoted her life to living out her faith and serving others, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew her. Remembered for her kindness and commitment to Christian values, Gerry was a selfless servant of Christ.

Gerry will be remembered by three loving sons: Daniel and Beverly (Calloway) Moore, David and Lori (Commeans) Moore, and Gregory and Debbie (Snyder) Moore. Five grandchildren: Scott and Amy (Bierhup) Moore, Stephen Moore, Allison Moore, Matthew and Grace (Fulton) Moore, and Olivia Moore, as well as six great-grandchildren: Taggart Moore, Hannah, Andrew, Jordan, Braxton Moore, and Madilynn Moore, all of Jackson. Gerry is also survived by her two sisters, Josephine Neilson of Scranton, Kansas, and Patsy Collins of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, along with many cherished nieces and nephews, and her Godly friend, Marie Walls. She will also be sadly missed by her beloved cat, Tiger.

Gerry is now reunited in heaven with her parents, John Daniel Rose and Eula Kate Purcell Rose, as well as her beloved husband, Roddy. In addition to her two brothers, John William and Leroy Rose, two brother-in-laws, Floyd L. Collins and Ray Neilson, one sister-in-law, Mamie (White) Rose, and her maternal grandparents, Forrest and Effie Purcell.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the First Baptist Church in care of the Deacon's Fund. All donations will be used to help people in need.

The funeral service celebrating Gerry's life will be held at 6:00pm Friday June 13, 2025 at First Baptist Church located at 35 Broadway Street Jackson, Ohio 45640. Pastor Seth Fallon will be officiating. Calling hours will be 3:00-6:00 pm prior to the service.

“Gerry was a sweet Christian woman who was serious about the power of prayer and mentored me through many adversities in my life. She gave me many words of wisdom from God's Word and truly cared <3. She was like my grandmother who passed 2 years ago. Many talks, hugs, smiles, lots of love to give and always a joy to spend time with! What an amazing testimony her life was! I'm praying for all of her family and everyone who knew her. Her absence will be evident. She made such an impact on people. God will wrap His arms around you and comfort you during your grieving. I miss her dearly, but one day I'll see her again and those of you who are her Christian brothers and sisters, as I am, will one day too, because we know that "absent from the body, present with The Lord."
What JOY she's experiencing right now to be reunited with her loved ones, but especially to SEE the face of God and be in His presence!

With much love and heartfelt sympathy,

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I'm all too familiar with where you are right now and wish your family peace and understanding during this difficult time.

Gerry was my grandmother, Ranelle Walker's best friend. They went to the same church, my sister and I grew up knowing her and I remember we being in her Sunday School class.

From time to time since losing my oldest son last year Gerry would send me the sweetest, kindest words to make any heart smile. She brought me comfort.

She also visited my grandmother at the nursing facility on a regular basis and would let me know how she was doing that particular day and I would do the same when I visited with my grandma.

She truly was the kindest soul. She meant what she said. She will truly be missed and forever loved. May she rest peacefully. ❤️
