“ I'm very sorry to learn of my nephew's passing. He was a very thoughtful and loving person and believed in God. He is now with his mother, brother, grandmother and other family members who welcomed him home. He was blessed to have a family of his own - all he ever wanted his whole life. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife and children.

“ I celebrate my cousin's homecoming with his mother, brother Danny, our grandmother and other family who I'm sure were waiting at the gates of Heaven to welcome him. We weren't close growing up because of the distance between us but I know he was a godly man and it brings me comfort to know we'll be together for eternity. Praise God for our salvation and for the blessings on earth but now for his reward in being a good and faithful servant. My thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and children who mourn his time here and will miss him until they are reunited. Rest in peace dear cousin and hug our family for me. How wonder it is for you to now be with our Father - oh what glory!

“ Our family will never forget the friendship we had for a time. But more than anything we will never forget the support Greg gave to my cousin John when Anita was sick & during the time he was trying to get custody of Bryce. I never got to tell Greg that at the beginning of this year John's adoption of Bryce was finalized. Since we heard of Greg's passing all of you have been in our thoughts & prayers. Due to previous commitments we will be unable to attend the service on Wednesday. If you need anything please do not hesitate to call us.

“ It's still hard to believe this man of God has made the final destination home. To us it may seem way to soon. I'm sure Pastor Gregg is rejoicing, even though his earthly family would rather he still be here. He brought to life the messages he was talking of. Prayers for Circleville.
