“ I knew Duane for many years as my dad, who lived on 74 Second Street, and him were good friends and played lots of music together. He was always kind and encouraging as we all worked on our musicianship I, but few could match his skills. He really loved making music, and his music touched many! I imagine many of the old gang are making some sweet music in the heavens! Mom said he stopped by recently and said he missed my dad. I'll miss him.

“ What a talented musician and singer. I loved hearing him play guitar. So sweet and kind. He would come to my home on the weekends there in Coalton to play music with my dad Lawson Rippeth, Uncle Dick Rippeth, Jim Ferguson, Joe Goheen plus many more. Wonderful, treasured memories 😭. He will be missed but he is back with some of his pickin' buddies making Heaven sound beautiful. A true blessing to have known him.
