“ I will remember Mr. Jack Chinn as a loving father of my dear friend Nazomi. He was always there as a calm force for his family and for his children's friends. One year, he and his lovely wife opened their house to me, a stranded graduate student, so that I could be with them for Christmas. He also brought his wife to my wedding to support me when my parents were not able. Jack will be missed dearly and we will treasure the great memories such as the attached pictures from 26 years ago in Columbus Ohio from my wedding.
