“ Jack was one of a kind. The Ragland family just loved him. He used to tell the kids that he got up early in the morning to catch all the fish that they sold at the booth. When they were little they believed him. He always had a smile on his face, a kind encouraging word for everyone. He made you feel a part of something bigger than just buying a fish sandwich. Everyone was important to him. He made everyone feel so glad that they got to see him. Always made sure I went by there when I was in town for one of the events that they had the booth set up. He will be sadly missed.
Look to God for comfort.
