I love him too.
When me and the husband were having issues him and mom came to get me and his grand babies. That wasn't mentioned either. He loved them so much.
I lived with them for almost a year, he'd say well girls whatcha wanna do with pappy today? He took them to the pet store, he took them to ihop Olive Garden and they took me to my baby appointments when I was pregnant with his grandson.
He was there every time I needed him. He was the best listener and his sense of humor always got me. Well how's that treat ya! My family is grieving and the sad part is my children I can't take away the pain but I can promise them that their pappy has forever loved them til he took his last breath.
I love you dad!
Love is thicker than blood! You've taught me that.
Rest easy, and until we meet again.

Lacy massie who is your real dad?

Kimberly Hopper - January 25, 2024 at 06:10 PM

“ He was a great guy sweet and thoughtful and I know he would be very upset that his two children samantha spires and Haley donmyer was not mentioned in here. He raised them from the time samantha was 3 years old and haley 5 years old and accepted them as his own. He was always there for them and loved them unconditionally. They were his children by heart and he knows they loved him and he loved them. May god be with the people who need it. Rest easy and fly high jason massie we miss you dearly.
