“ My heart goes out to the family of John. May God touch you, the family, in this time of great sorrow. I loved John as much as any family member I have. He was a very special and unique person. I always loved just listening to him talk. His intelligence was mesmerizing. . Such a person as John is not born everyday and I feel privileged just to have known him in my life. If he had ever realized what he had he could have saved and touched the whole world. May you all find comfort in knowing what a very special and rare person he truly was. Love To You All.
