“ As a kid I remember Johnny as a soldier in Vietnam and as the Uncle that would never settle down. That was until he met you, Kathy. You changed his life and created a home and gave him a family he was proud of. I am miles away but the memories are close.

“ Kathy, J.D. and Trey, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Johnny was my uncle although there was very little difference in our ages, so he seemed like a brother or 1st cousin. As a child we would visit about every other year. I remember the times we had together back then and how much I enjoyed them. Especially arguing baseball, him Reds and me Giants. The last time I saw him was 4 years ago. I spent a day with him and Trey and evening with him and Kathy. I will miss him, but have memories to keep.
