“ Uncle Joe was my favorite uncle, (sorry, fellas). He picked on my as I grew up and looked out for me as I grew into adulthood. He was always good for a laugh. I can remember when I had pneumonia, Joe gave me my first shot of whiskey, and he didn't even drink! He was a great man with a big heart. I take comfort that he's reunited with family and friends that have gone before him, especially my grandparents, aunt Diane, and aunt Jenny. He is now with the Lord and he's doing better than he ever did here. Rest easy, Old Man. We will see each other again.
