“ Just a Great Man! met Joe at work and we hit it off right away. Department Lead at that time and he pulled me off the line and made me his assistant lead. He was such a smart and low key guy. He shared many of his military and vietnam experience stories with me. Oh and Joe, don't let him fool ya, he could bench press a mack truck.....God Bless you all

“ Our deepest condolences. You're in our prayers. Joe and I shared one very important thing, a nephew with the name of Don (Donny) Channell. One very vivid memory I have of Joe, one night we were driving back to Jackson from somewhere, Joe and I started talking about the Bible and the longer we talked the conversation got more intense. Joe was an outstanding person. He will be missed by all.

I took Communion to Joe at 4 Winds for some months. I was amazed at his ability with the rubic cube. Nice guy, fun to visit with. God bless
