Enter into the joy of the Lord." (Matthew 25: 21 and 23). Deacon Joseph Tanner is and has been working diligently for his reward! Deacon Tanner was tested and ordained as Deacon back in October of 1995. His love of the word of God led him to further his Biblical education and he graduated from SOMA School of Ministry in 2002.

The overflowing love of Christ came out in Deacon Tanner's life and teaching. He's been the Sunday School Superintendent at his local church for many years, SS/BTU President of the Piketon Sub-district Sunday School and worked with the Providence Evangelism Explosion Team.

“ Joe was on our FSA committee and I always enjoyed talking to him. He was such a kind soul. He had a way about him that you knew he was a believer without telling it. I'm glad I will see him again some day. Rest in peace Joe! I'm praying for your family. He will be greatly missed!

“ Deacon Tanner will be sadly missed. He was a encourager to boost the pastor as he preach by saying amen as well and praising God as he encourages the choir. He loved the song "I've been redeemed. " He was always part of the Providence deacons for devotion. Prayers for his wife Daisy as well as the rest of the family.

“ *Sure hate to hear this. But I know has made it to the Full Presence of His Savior Jesus Christ. Always love talking with Joe. I attended Southern Ohio School of Ministry with Joe . His Love for his Lord was always something he shared with me. What an amazing man. We were trustees together and both of us enjoyed cattle.
