“ I remember Juanita as a very kind, sweet, caring person. As I recall she always had a smile & seemed a very happy person. If she had a bad day or something not just going right that day, you would not know it. She did not burden you with it. Her new home will be no sickness nor pain nor parting over there, as the song goes. You were all very fortunate to have her as long as you did. She loved each of you very much. Feel bless as she did.
