“ Kay always made me feel like I was special to her. Her namesake. Kay, so very, very, special to me. She told me about things that happened when I was a baby and how she cared for me. Well, she never stopped caring. Allowing me to live at her and Bernie's for awhile and anytime. She took me to bingo games, and we took many shopping trips together. She always kept me laughing, she had quick comebacks, she always listened and kept my secrets, a wonderful cousin and more wonderful friend. She was straight forward, tough talker and big hearted. Always loved her always will. I miss you forever Kay Malone. Melissa Kay Ervin

“ You can't imagine the memories I have of Kay. I guess food is at the top of the list. So many meals at her table. Gave dozens of permanent waves over the past 35 years! Always with a meal in return. Her sense of humor kept you in stitches. But one very early memory is of Kay sitting in a tree as we turned in Grandma and Grandpa Graces drive way. Pigtailed waving in the wind.

I remember when Kay came to my house to help me paint my living room . Goldie look at Kay and said wish I had my own Room . Kay said will Goldie were you going to put your own room at . Goldie said why can't we put it down stairs . Kay said well Goldie let's go look downstairs. Well let's just say Kay made that happen for Goldie she came up with her own idea she wanted to do downstairs . She even made sure Goldie had her a fireplace . She even made it look to were it look like a fire was burning inside . Kay has that fireplace is now in her own home . She made Goldie the happiest little girl ever because she had her own room she turned around and looked at Kay and said Thanks Aunt Kay because that's what Goldie always called her . I got freedom at last . The Smile 😊 on Kay's Face said it all . She also helped me when I moved in my apartment in town and got the stuff I wanted for my place I still have the stuff she got me . Kay was like that something I will always treasure about her . I miss you so much Kay and I will never forget the last talk we had together. You will be in my heart ❤️ and memories. Forever
