“ Kathy, letting you go has been one of the hardest things I've done, my heart is broken! Maybe because we always had another sibling to turn to, and now I'm left without all of you. So heartbreaking to that all 6 of you are now gone on to be with Mom and Dad. Kathy's inspiring presence touched everyone who knew her. Her love for God was genuinely commendable and this is what truly matters in life. For without Him we are lost and nothing. I'm deeply missing the daily video chats we used to have and receiving those early morning messages from you. The sorrow in my heart is profound. I will miss you saying "sis". The love I have for you will never weaken and I will see you again. You, Kathy have been the most difficult person I've had to let go of. My heart is broken! You're now resting in peace in the arms of God. You ended our conversations with "I love you more" and I ended it with "I've loved you the longest" because I'm older than you. I was blessed with you as my baby sister! Rest in Heaven! I love you even longer! I miss you!

In the brief time I worked at Four Winds, she felt more like a staff member. She always cared for others. She had a sweet soul and made ya feel at home.
