Kathy Ann Wykle-Carter, 71, was called home to the Lord on March 22, 2024 at 3:18pm, in Chillicothe, Ohio. She was born to the late William (Red) A. Wykle and Marcella (Sis) F. Wykle on June 1, 1953, in Waverly, Ohio. Kathy's life was marked by the loving care she provided as a homemaker, a role she embraced wholeheartedly, in her efforts to make a nurturing home for her family. Remembered for her loving, open heart, and unwavering friendly nature. Her warm presence will be profoundly missed by her beloved son, Shawn R. Wykle of Chillicothe, Ohio; sister, Linda Wyant of Jackson, Ohio; and brother, William (Tony) A. Wykle II of Goshen, Ohio. Kathy was a proud graduate of Piketon High School, Class of 1972. Her interests were as rich and diverse as the books she so loved to read. As an avid reader, Kathy reveled in the worlds of science fiction, fantasy, and crime mysteries. That spark of imagination extended into the hobby of Table Top Roleplaying Games and Board Games that she so often found joy and camaraderie in playing with friends and family. Kathy's faith was an integral part of her life, as demonstrated by the solace and spiritual nourishment she found at the the Tabernacle Baptist Church of Chillicothe, Ohio. Her spiritual journey was a testament to her character and the comfort she found in her beliefs. Friends and family are invited to gather and pay their respects at Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home in Jackson, Ohio, from 4 to 6pm on April 3rd. In keeping with Kathy's giving spirit, tax-deductable donations may be made to the Ross County Humane Society, a charitable cause close to her heart. Mayhew-

“ My name is Debbie and I became friends with Kathy during my teen years. I met her when my sister and her family lived in Piketon...my brother-in-law was a Church preacher at that time. Kathy and I shared many similar interests and became good friends. We once went to Bob Evans' farm and went horseback riding and then enjoyed a nice breakfast. She was much more at ease on her horse than me, and we had a good laugh about that. That's one of the things I remember about her was her great laugh. She was always a good, decent person, and I count myself lucky to have been her friend for those years. She is with God now and adding her own special light to Heaven. Love to Kathy and to your family as well.

“ One of my best friends... we've played so many games together over the last 20+ years. We shared a fondness for Star Trek and reading, and a love of Jesus which had us looking forward to the day we'd be with him.

You made it there first! Rest easy now. Your struggle is over.

Shawn, my heart is with you as you go through this loss. Your mom was one- of-a- kind. My prayer is that you will trust in the Lord so that you will one day see her again.
