

Kell Wing Haviland Palletti

March 14, 1986 - August 30, 2018

Kell Wing Haviland Palletti, age 32 of Louisville, Kentucky and formally of Jackson, was tragically killed by a hit-and-run driver on Thursday, August 30, 2018 in Louisville, Kentucky. He was born in Portsmouth, Ohio on March 14, 1986 to Karen Sue (Kayner) and Lawrence Henry Palletti, who survive. Besides his parents, he is survived by his sisters, Kerith and Cory Palletti, along with an aunt, Lisa Kayner.

Kell graduated from Oak Hill High School, attended the University of Rio Grande and obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from Ohio University. The following is a quote from one of his college assignments: "I have already come to terms with my mortality, everything begins to die the moment it is conceived, so I see no reason why I should get so bothered up about it...'I am truly sorry for your impending passing, but surely you've taken into consideration how unfair life is. This is simply how life works.' These would not be the exact words for decency's sake, mind you, but just, y'know, without all that sugar."

Kell was a very kind and intelligent soul. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force. He loved his Nintendo D.S., music, reading novels, and riding his bicycle.

A service celebrating Kell's life will be held on Sunday, September 16th at “Soldiers Circle” in Fairmount Cemetery at 2:00 p.m. with Bill Taylor officiating. Military services will be conducted by the Disabled American Veterans – Jackson Chapter 45.

Condolences may be sent to the family at: www.mayhew-brownfuneralhome.com.

“ I had the honor of serving with Kell in Ramstein Germany. He was an amazing writer, humble spirit, and caring individual. I will never forget his incredible ability to speak the truth and his sophisticated vocabulary. I once asked him how he got so good at writing and speaking because I wanted to be like him. He answered: "well, it does help to have parents with good genes." I was disappointed and eagerly waiting for him to continue to the next bullet point and he noticed it and gave me hope by saying: " if you read a lot, it will help." He was also not shy to share his wisdom by saying: "hope for the best and expect the worst." I remember having long arguments with him about this as I refused to expect the worst. Kell had a smart way of getting a ton of attention from the ladies by standing to the side and refusing to participate in events. I always noticed a group of young ladies urging him to join everyone. On one occasion, out of frustration and pure jealousy, I told the girls to just ignore him because he was just trying to get attention. Kell gave me an evil eye but did not break character. Kell will ALWAYS be remembered as someone who made a positive and lasting impact in my life. I thought of you Kell this night; I am saddened about the news but grateful for the time we shared together. Thank you for the service you gave to our nation and for the wisdom you shared with me during our time together.

“ I grew up with the Palletti sisters, but I never really knew Kell other than through the stories they shared with my sister and myself. I know they love him dearly, and I know he will be missed. Many hugs and positive thoughts are being sent to the family. I am so sorry for your tragic loss.

“ Dear Palletti family,

We are sorry for your loss.

Although we did not know your son, we think highly of you all, and are sorry for your suffering.

On Sunday just after noon, we must be in Columbus to pick up relatives from Alaska. So we will not be able to attend services.

Our thoughts are with you.
