“ I'll always remember you as a little blonde haired boy that wouldn't wear a shirt all summer. You had that ornery little grin and funny laugh. You would laugh and try to talk and nothing came out but jibberish. I'd come to hang out with Kristi and Drew and you and the other Kirby boys would be playing basketball in the driveway or football in the yard. You would always con me into playing even when i didn't want to. You and Dillon would always end up fighting. You were hard on him but I noticed how you'd never let anyone else pick on him or rough him up. You taught me that the juice at the bottom of the pickled sausage wrapper is just as good as the sausage itself lol. Time went on, and that little blonde haired boy grew up to be a handsome young man who I will always be glad to call my family.
