

Larry Wayne Ross

May 16, 1954 - September 21, 2021

Larry W Ross, age 67 of Jackson, passed away Tuesday September 21, after a 2 year long battle with cancer, at his home near Jackson. Larry was born to Elba and Geraldine Ross in Oak Hill OH, on May 16, 1954 and was number 8 of 9 children. He was preceded in death by his Parents, and 4 siblings, Helen, Carol, Carl, and Ida. He is survived by his Wife Brenda, his sons Jason and Joshua Ross, Stepsons Brandon and Joshua Weber, Sisters Thelma Harper and Nancy Ross, and brothers Paul and Earl Ross. He is also survived by his grandchildren, and a very large extended family, many nieces and nephews, and many close friends that he loved dearly. Larry loved to hunt and fish and especially enjoyed taking long rides to scenic places. He loved to build things and work with his hands. He was widely known in the area and found someone he knew everywhere he went. He was a friend to all and was extremely kind and generous. He had a razor sharp memory and remembered details about everyone he ever met, and every place he had ever been.

He graduated from Jackson High school in 1972, and worked a variety of jobs in machining, construction, and industrial maintenance and retired from Flour B+W in Piketon Ohio.

Arrangements are being handled under the direction of the Mayhew Brown Funeral Home.

Per Larry's wishes, a private service will be held at the convenience of the family at a later time

“ Larry was my uncle and attended my wedding in Utah in 1999. Larry called me every year on our anniversary to wish a happy anniversary. I always wondered how he did and just before he passed he told me it was the day before his birthday and that is how he remembered. I will miss getting his call next year and all the subsequent years too. Larry was a gracious person and never let me pay for anything whenever I visited him. I miss you Uncle Larry. Love, Chris

“ So sorry to read this, I was talking to a friend who has been doing their mowing about Larry the other day and had learned he was very ill. He was always so cheerful and teased and joked a lot. He was a good guy and is gone to soon. My condolences.

“ Our hearts are sadden at the passing of our friend Larry. Larry was not only a good friend but Karen and me had the privilege of serving as Larry and Brenda's pastor for many years. Spending time with Larry and Brenda was always an up lifting experience. Our prayers are with Brenda, Jason and Josh in these difficult days.
