“ Clareann, Do you remember when you, Kathy & I would walk to the high school football field in the late summer so you could watch Buddy practice football. It seemed like such a long walk from your house or from Grandma's. You told us that that he was the one you were going to marry. Buddy didn't know it yet, but you were right. Ken still talks about the good times we had playing cards together. We will always fondly remember Buddy. Love ya', Meredith

“ Dear Clareann, I am so sorry for missing the visiting. I didn't know when it was until after the fact. Even though you had many years together, one is seldom, if ever, prepared for the grief and sorrow that follows such a loss. Words are never adequate, but please accept my sincerest sympathy. You are in my thoughts and prayers. If there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to call.
